Internship Certificate

To whom it may concern

This is to certify that Smrithi Shaji has completed an internship with us in the data science department from 23rd March 2023 to 31st July 2023.

Throughout her tenure, Smrithi proved herself to be an invaluable asset to our team. She took active part in a variety of data-science projects, showcasing her adaptability in embracing new technologies.

Smrithi was proactive and inquisitive in learning about our current systems and future possibilities. Her dedication to her tasks and commitment to continuous learning stood out prominently. Her consistent efforts make her an exemplary data scientist in the making.

We at Kenpath Technologies were very pleased to work with such a promising individual. We have no doubt that Smrithi Shaji will excel in any future endeavors she chooses to pursue, and we wholeheartedly recommend her for any forthcoming professional opportunities.

Sincerely,

Aditya Chhabra
