The IQAC of National College has organized a Faculty Development program on Internet as a Link between Language and Literature on September, 2022. Mr. Om Shivaprakash, Founder member of Sanchaya Kannada Language Technology Research & Study Forum was the resource person. The principal, Dr. Y.C. Kamala welcomed all the participants, introduced the resource person and briefly highlighted the importance of internet as a bridge between language and literature. The resource person mainly focussed on the significance of book digitisation in the current era which can go a long way not only in helping the research scholars and writers protect copyrights of their works but also with increased access and achieve cost efficiency. He stressed upon the process of book digitisation like proper file scanning, data entry and quality control which can work wonders in ensuring that one can tackle any challenge that might arise in modern day.
